End of Tour

Thank you for visiting Pinckney Island NWR. We hope that you have enjoyed your tour. Pinckney Island NWR is one of the refuges comprising the Savannah Coastal Wildlife Refuges Complex. Be sure to visit the Savannah Coastal Refuges Visitor Center, located on U.S. Highway 17 South. It is open Monday through Saturday, from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm, excluding all federal holidays. The visitor center features an exhibit hall, a short film about the refuge, a nature store, and restroom facilities, as well as information about the other refuges managed within the Savannah Coastal Refuges Complex.

Pinckney Island NWR is just one of many refuges across the country that you can visit. A hundred years in the making, the National Wildlife Refuge System is a network of habitats that benefits wildlife, provides unparalleled outdoor experiences for all Americans, and protects a healthy environment. For more information about these wild places, visit us on the web at refuges.fws.gov, and keep an eye out for the Blue Goose, the symbol of the National Wildlife Refuge System, during your travels.

There is always something new to see at Savannah National Wildlife Refuge, so please, visit us again soon.
